

2019 BWAFF Leadership Awards

FOUNDATION AWARD

Awarded to a transformational firm for expanding opportunities for and influencing the careers of women in the building industry.

KEYSTONE

Bestowed to an executive leader or firm for increasing women's impact, representation, and effectiveness at the top management levels in the building industry.

PILLAR

Presented to a woman who has shown leadership and mentorship in the profession, who works to increase recognition of women's work and opportunities for women.

OCULUS

Awarded to an individual who has demonstrated significant leadership in teaching and research, enhancing and furthering understanding of gender issues in architecture and related fields.

SCROLL

Conferred to a media organization or person demonstrating excellence in the coverage and advancement of women in the design and construction industry.

TRIBUNE

Given to younger individual(s) who demonstrates significant leadership and active participation in increasing recognition of and improving gender inequities faced in the building industry.